THE CURRENCY QUESTION.

THE Straits Times recently announced that Japan is likely to adopt a gold standard of currency, and sagely adds. "such a course would mean a Percer. scramble for gold and further appreciation of the yellow metal." We agree with our contemporary as to the disastrous results which would ensue, but differ as to its likelihood. Mr. Ed. Brush, a recognized authority on these matters in America, is, at least, as pressing as in Europe, will borrow in Europe and pay Japan in learns from Japanese sources: (1st) that. silver the price of the white metal: has already advanced over 6 per cent. Which Japan does not desire a gold basis : (2) rise should pertainly he maintained and that it is hardly possible for China to arrange with European bankers to deplete; added to if such be the case be if Japan the treasuries of Europe of gold to pay her wanted the indemnity-in gold to start on a indemnity, but (3) that a gold indemnity irestigold basis, then silver would undoubtwill be placed to the credit of Japan edly collapse and probably find a lower in the trade centres of Europe, to levelthan before. In this connection it may as a banking capital | be as well to remember that if China has to [675 to make such purchases of silver, war | borrow and pay in gold, her repayments basis, she would immediately lose this to perceive this clearly and act accord-valued correspondent calls our attention to the rumour that Russia. too, is actually thinking of establishing a gold basis for her currency. This, he remarks, is almost laughable considering that her present actual currency is an almost inconvertible paper rouble, with comparatively little silver behind it Where will Russia get the wherewithal to purchase the gold with which to established such currency? She has stores of gold in the Urals and in Siberia, but they would be but a sop in the pan. If she tries to borrow the gold the result will be just what is happening now in America. The United States are borrowing freely in gold to replenish their nearly expansiontreasury; but the gold so borrowed does not long remain with her, and the treasury is like a leaky ship trying to pump out the ocean through her gaping seams. The hypothesis-for it does not deserve the dignity of the term theory-of a Russian gold standard is not worthy of serious consideration. Russian credit, it is true, has always been excellent better even than her finances deserve-and this is probably due to the regularity with which she paid her interest after the Crimean war, though her chief creditors, England and France, had been ther opponents Russia undoubtedly would be only too glad to join with other nations in establishing 127 a fixed ratio between gold and silver. especially as the onus of such a step would fall, not upon her but upon wealthier nations. Russia has always kept large stores of gold in reserve as a War Fund, but this cannot reasonably be looked upon as a step towards a gold currency. The question of Japan adopting a gold currency, says our correspondent, important. The recent change of Rinance LL these are Selected by our London. Minister in Tokio is somewhat suspicious, as the new Minister, is said to have strong leaning towards gold. Nothing has leaked out, as yet, as to how the Chinese indemnity is to be paid, whether in lilver or the equivalent of a certain quantity of silver in gold. Even if the Ispanese had stipulated that it should be paid in gold it does not follow that they intend to testablish a gold basis of currency; it may be they only prefer the more stable standard of value, so that they can purchase silver to advantage... Japan is in urgent want of coin of some

the Bank of Japan (which is practically nothing more or less than the issue department of the Imperial Treasury) is Wines, of very superior vintage, All are out of proportion to the enormous issue of paper money. The war debt may not be intended to be paid in gold. but the silver yes on which the notes are based have been exported to the Straits by the million in the last nine monthspartly as regular financial transactions to equalize the balance of trade, but partly also to pay for the sums due in Europe by therefore, Japan had not got the prospective incoming of the Chinese indemnity her paper currency would by now have droppped to a big discount or the silver ym would have reached a great premium and the result would have been that they would have had to borrow in Europe as temporary measure or refrain from paying cash for their notes on demand, as they do at the present. However, if no further complications ensue, they are likely to be soon fairly well in funds, if they can succeed in getting China to pay up. So it is quite within the bounds of probability that Japan will re-establish a gold standard. We say re-establish, as their standard used to be gold; the gold rigo, and when the mint was first started its standard value was the gold yes which were coined first, and, if we remember rightly, it was some is years later that they commenced to coin silver ym. They were of the opinion that the two coins would circulate together, but with failing values in silver the result was an admirable illustration of what known as the Gresham law, viz:-that the chesper metal will always drive ou the dearer, and the Chamber of Commerce returns in Japan show that gold was as regularly exported as tea or allk, until there was hardly any left in the country Whether the result of the re-establishment gold a standard would ante at a benefit for a / cussed soffthe Country Wish matter which will no doubt be duly but one cannot help remembering the fact that Germany plunged boldly for gold after her big war, and is now one of the strongest advocates for the return of blmetallism, and volumes could be written on the disastrous effects of the cheaper standard on cost of living and production throughout the whole German Empire. "What will be the effect of wir gold ! standard for Japan as far at commerce here is concerned? It would undoubtedly, have an immediately disastrous effect bliver on the price of which all our transactions, are based The prewhere the burning question of bi-metallism | sent position is; that believing China

> (Special to Shanghal Mercury.) THE RETROCESSION OF THE LIAOTUNG PENINSULA.

YOKOHAMA, May 13th. An Imperial Decree has been published which recites that both the Emperor of Japan and the Emperor of China appointed Envoys, who completed the Peace Treaty. However, the Governments of Russia. Germany and France advised Japan that the permanent retention of the Lizotung Peninsula was not conducive to the lasting peace of the Orient, "and these Governments recommended its retrocession, We (Japan) are always anxious to establish Oriental peace: Our object in the recent was with China was the foundation of permanent peace, and We believe that the advice of Russia, Germany and France was imbued with the same feeling. We, therefore, desiring peace, will not ingist upon the retention of the Lisotung Peninsula, being undestrous of raising fresh trouble and causing difficulty as well as to increase the calamity of the people and obstruct the expansion of the country by deferring restore the blessings of peace. China has shown her regret for breaches of former friendship by justifying before the whole world Ispan's action. Japan, therefore, compiles with the desires of Russia, Germany and France. The manner of restoring Lafotung Peningula will be arranged between Japan and China. Now the Ratified Treaty has been exchanged, the former friendship with China has been restored, and closer ties have been made. Neutral countries, officials and people must keep this object steadily in view.

MR. T. COWEN'S RELATIONS WITH JAPANESE STAFF OFFICERS.

The following letter addressed by Mr. T. Cowen. Times War Correspondent, to the Tapas Mail will be read with interest by Mr. Cowen's numerous friends in this colony, That Mr. Cowen is fully justified in giving the lie to the unscrupulous manufacturers of what be aptly describes as "Yankee Notions" we do not for one moment question, and we are glad to see that as soon as he returned from the soat of war he lost no time in levelling a blow at the mischievous, and more or less irresponsible, Yankee scribblers with whom he had the misfortune to arduous duty at the front. TO THE EDITOR OF THE "JAPAN MAIL." "Sir. — There have been to many absurd stories about this war, and even wild fantasies fabricated by correspondents at the front in reference to their confrares, that it is out of the question to trace and expose them all, especially since they mostly do not matter much in the end. But there'is one American story which may seriously misleed the Japanese and causa a great deal of trouble if not contradicted. It appears in a recont issue of the San' Francisco Chronicle. quoted by the Topan Mail, to the effect that my published reports had drawn forth angry whom I had to deal-so angry, in fact, that my Interpreter did not dare to tell me the whole truth; and that the modified version impressed again, and that I did, in fact, after my tone under. official pressure: "Nothing of the sort ever occurred. I have never heard a word of official remonstrance with respect to anything that had appeared in print from me. Prior to publication, one of my Wei-hai-wei letters, in which I mentioned that the bad water supply and sanitation of the asmy threatened to cause a peatilence as soon as warm weather should come, was brought back to me with a request to embody in it certain additional facts, and that is all. This was the only case in which there was ever anything in the nature of a remonstrance-and now summer has brought pestilence more destructive than the whole of the actual fighting. As for my interpreter, he was not present just then ; I had not seen him for a week, and the last time I wanted bim he was deeply engrossed in the investigation of some newly-discovered Samshu or Kaoliang spirit, and when at lest he did reappear it was with a black eye acquired in a drunken quarrel.

"Whatever be the origin of the story about the angry remonstrances, whether it was the alcoholic illusion of my faithful attacht, or merely an American invention, a. "Yankee notion," does not matter to me, nor probably to the American paper. But for the sake of the Japanese officials it should be pointed out that they are not so childish as this story implies. They know well enough that it would do no good. It is a little unfortunate that the people have not all the same sense (though of course it would be wonderful if they had); they have given way to a not unnatural but very unwise passion of petulance, which kept the sore from healing. The Government ought not to be accused of doing the same. What I see I write, and it would be an insult to ask any responsible newspaper correspondent to do otherwise. His pinions of what he sees are quite another matter, more elastic ; they may wary with circomstances, they may soften with time. They naturally become of more of pronounced when violently stracked. To accuse a Government, or an officer representing it, of bullying or cajoling to accuse the leading fournal in the world of yielding to such paitry pressure or of making most important statements so careless that they need to be swallowed at once; to cleculate their accusations on the second-hand authority of a drunken good-for-nothing, is not jurnalism. As long as the lie is left to circulate in the wilds of California it does no harm, butwhen it is discovered and made public in the outer world, then it must be gently but firmly Yours faithfully.

THE TREATY OF PEACE,

THE ADDITIONAL ARTICLES.

Our readers will remember that on the 14th instant we published a translation from the Chineseof thearticles of the Treaty concluded on the 17th April at Shimonoseki. Compared with the full text of the Treaty as published in a recent issue of the Peking and Tientsin Times it seems that our version of the gist of that document was correct, but that there were three additional articles which read as follows:-

The Japanese Military Forces which are. under Article VIII of the Treaty of Peace signed this day, to temporarily occupy Wei-hai-wei, shall not exceed one Brigade, and from the date of the exchange of the ratifications of the said Treaty of Peace, China shall pay annually, one fourth of the amount of the expenses of such temporary occupation, that is to say, at the rate of 500,000 Kuping Tacls per annum.

The territory temporarily eccupied at Wel- the least, shameful. bal-wel shall comprise the Island of Liu-kung and a belt of land ; Japanese Ri wide along the entire coast line of the Bay of Wel-hai-wel. No Chinese Troops shall be permit ed to approach or occupy any places within a sone of 5 Japanese Riwide beyond the boundaries of the occupied territory.

The Civil Administration of the occupied territory shall remain in the hands of the Chinese Authorities. But such Authorities shall at all times be obliged to conform to the orders which the Commander of the Japanese Army of occupation may deem it necessary to give in the interest of the health, maintenance, safety, distribution or dicipline of the Treops. All military offerces committed within the

A CHINESE " DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE."

A PROCLAMATION OF THE PEOPLE OF FORMOSA

The following, purporting to be a proclamation by the people of Formosa, appeared in the Shanghal Sin-wen-pao and Sin-pao, on the 17th instant:-

Our island (Formoss) has been in the possession of the Ta Tsing Dynasty for over 200 years. and has lately been elevated to a province. The progress of the affairs of the Island has been satisfactory to all of us, up to this year, and we had hoped to enjoy this prosperity for years to come. But unfortunately war broke out last year between China and Japan, and our Emperor, pitying the soldiers and people, was greatly destrous of peace. The Japanese demanded that this Island be given up as a condition of peace. and the Emperor was compelled to grant this. When we heard of the surrender of this Island we were exceedingly sorry, and begged our Governor, Tung, to express our ideas to the Emperor. Officials, near and far from the Throne, were also, of the same mind, and continually memorialised the Emperor to the same effect, but these memorials were unfavourably received. We then begged England to prevent the cessation of the Island, but she took no notice of us. We then begged Governor Tong to telegraph to the Tsung-li Yame : to consult with Russia, France and Germany to prevent the cossition, but this appeal met likewise with no success. Oh, how pitiful to turn this island over to the enemy! It has over 2,000 If of fine mountainous country and the population is no less than ten millions, without counting one million of brave savages and forty thousand strong men in the garrison. R lying upon there, we assure the world we will never bend our heads to submit to the everny. We seem to have no help, and the only thing we can do is to declare the island independent. We can soon select a learned and reliable man who will be given all power until everything is settled, when we will again consult with our Emperor. If the Japanese act according to the dictates of conscience and forego taking possession of the Island, then we will gladly enjoy peace, and share our benefits with them, but none of our laws shall be made by strangers, or any of our places be in their possession. If they intend to fight, then we will receive them with arms in our hands, and all will rather die on the field of battle than give up the place. We hereby exhort our codatrymen to endeavour to retrieve their reputation by fighting with their utmost strength,

With regard to our a ms, munitions and provisions, we have sufficient for a few months, but it will be indispensable to establish an office in Shanghai, Kwangchow, and other places in the Kiangnan provinces, to raise funds to carry on this patriot'c and honourable war. .. As we are in such straits, we have no doubt the people will do all they can to assist us to save this lonely island, by loaning us money. If any Foreign countries help to preserve the independence of the Island, then they shall p-ricipate in the re- fine weather with moderate swell from the north- expenses of taking the prisoner to Utica. sources of Formora, these being particularly | east. great in the beds of coal and minerals including gold and silver. "And, furthermore, they shall be allowed to build houses and reside in all parts of the Island. Or, if any Foreign country be the means of returning Formora to China, the same privileges will be allowed them. Most of the inhabitants of Formess are descended from Fuhilen or Kwangtung families, and many people from these provinces have travelled to Poreign countries. We hope the rick ones will geturn immediately with their fortunes, and they will be treated as well as we can. The poor ones are also javi ad to return and show their bravery, and they will also be well treated. We venture to hope this declaration of independence will not be thought wrong, as we are obliged by the nature of our situation to do something. We have never heard of an island being surrendered without combat. If we give. up our island, fields and gardens, then we will have no pative place. Though we will have life, if the Island be given to the enemy we will be a shamed people in the eyes of the world. In consequence we have taken an oath to defend:

our island to the last. We hope, in conclusion, that all, both our own people and foreigners, will have compassion on us and assist us with widely opened purses. Actions of this kind will be most thankfully acknowledged. We hope all will consider the metter and come to a conclusion favourable to

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS: TO THE EDITOR OF THE " HOMOMORG TRLEGUATE."

SIR,-It afforded me no little pleasure to peruse in your columns the letters; of "Humanitarian" and Staff Sergeant Morrison, who have so sensibly drawn the attention of the Government to the horrible cruelties perpetrated by Chinese on dumb animals in this colony.

May I venture to point out two other instances where needless suffering is often inflicted. refer, in the first place, to the caging of a young tiger in the Public Gardens. As far as I can see this fine beast has been cramped up in a cage far too small for his size, and rumour has it, and I think it is true, that he is insufficiently fed To add to his suffering he is locked within the inner doors of his cage and so there is barely room for him to stretch his limbs. What pleasure there can be in exhibiting him under these conditions I really fail to see, and who finds pleasure in looking at the poor brute should like to know. Were he ledged in a more sultable cage and properly looked after there might be some usjtification for keeping him on exhibition. At present, however, he looks as though death would come to him as a great

The other instance of cruelty to which refer is the heartless manner in which your pups are tied to in bled-shope with a bit of string fastened tightly around their necks, in close proximity to filth and vermin of every description. Their yells of agony and piteous cries while confined in this state and while being esten alive by vermin are truly heavt-

SHANGHAI BUTCHERS' STRIKE. IGNOMINIOUS COLLAPSE.

The great bulchers' strike, which was entered upon so suddenly on Monday morning (12th). has entirely collapsed to-day, says the Shanghaf Mercury on the 17th Instant. The action of the Municipal Council, who were rapidly procaring cattle from the out-ports, and the defection of the foreign leader. Hall, who seems to have realised—though somewhat latehis mistake, broke up the combination. The Council insisted, before it would allow cattle to be slaughered by the strikers, that they pay up all arrears, and sign a contract agreeing to pay the bullock-bong fees i to keep their cattle for at least twenty-four, hours in the hong, and to buy any cattle that might be sent down for the Council through the efforts made to break the strike. This latter condition was demurred to, but finally the butchers agreed to that also. Last night (16th) 47 cattle. of sheep and a few calves were slaughtered, and this morning (17th) all the butchers' stalls were open with the exception of two or three whose owners had not then paid up their arrears. This satisfactory ending of an attempt to coerce the Municipal Council reflects great credit upon the authorities of the Model Settlement and should have a salutary effect in th prevention of such offensive and useless measures in the fature.

NEWS BY THE AMERICAN MAIL

The following telegrams from our San Francisco exchanges were "crowded out" of last night's issue :-

LONDON. April 19th. To-night the inaugural dinner of the American Society in London was held at the Cale Royal presided over by the Hon. Thomas F. Bayard the American Embassador. One hundred and filty of the most prominent Americans in England were present, in addition to some members of the American colony in Paris, who came to London especially to attend the banquet. Mr. Bayard had at his right hand the Hon. J. B. Eustis, American Embassador to France, and at his left Andrew Carnegie. The guests included the entire staff of the American embassy. Mr. Bayard toasted the Queen and then the President of the United States. Both toasts were receiv d with uproarlous cheering. In the course of his speech Mr. Bayard explained the objects of the society and said he trusted it wou'd always uphold American traditions. Much could come of this nucleus. American citizens could see nothing but good in it. The band played " Hail Columbia " while the toast of the President was being tendered.

Mr. H. B. Chamberlain followed Mr. Bayard, proposing a toast to the society and giving further details of its aims. ' e announced some special greeting would be given to the Hon. Adlal Stevenson, Vice-President of the United States, on his arrival in London. ... Newton Crane responded to the toast ! The American Resident in London "; Mr. Carnegio to the "American Binationalist : " Consul-General Collins to the "American Official in London; and Dr. Penrose to "The American Abroad." The banquet was marked by the greatest cordinity.

FAIRITELD, Iows, April 19th. Ex-Senator Wilson has been unconscious all Physicians say he cannot live through the BORDENTOWN, N. J., April 19th. Mrs. Della T. Parnell, mother of the late Charles Stewart Parnell, who lives at Ironsides, overlooking the Delaware River, near here, was found bleeding and unconscious late last night by Charles Casey, a son of the farmer who has charge of the farm at "Ironsides. While descending a hill which marks the boundary of the property formerly occupied by Mrs. Parnell's father, young Casey heard moans.

Hurrying to the spot he found Mrs. Parnell lying beside the fence, with her face covered with blood. By her side were two small pieces of board, a piece of fence paling about three feet long and a brick. Help was obtained and she was carried to the home of Farmer Casey.

Dr. W. H. Shipps, who was bastily summoned. made an examination and found that, besides several bruises about the face, the woman had a lacerated wound on the right side of her head. Mrs. Parnell is unconscious, and because of her advanced ago her condition is regarded as critical. Her handbag was found alongside the rallroad track near by, her pocket-book missing and papers scattered in all directions.

This circumstance lands probability to the theory that she was brutally assaulted and robbed. Mrs. Parnell frequently came to this piace at night and remained until a late hour. She was here last night.

At noon Mrs. Parnell lay in an unconscious condition. The authorities are convinced that the vicinity about the time the assault is believed or payable in respect thereof.

to have been committed. Mrs. Parnell's house on the bill, about a mile from Bordentown, is known as " Ironsides." It Lane. is a big, old, two-storey frame structure and was built by her father many years ago. It is as dreary a place as one could imagine. Halong Bay.

The aged woman has no close acquain ances in Bordentown, and previous to 1800 had been living in destitution. In that year Congress granted her a pension of $50 per month. At that time she lived alone in a bleak house, the only other person about her 300 acres being a gardener. During 1888 and 1889, in a fit of desperation, the aged woman stripped the house of furniture in order to obtain food, and the rooms have never been refitted. Mrs. Parnell had often expressed a desire to go abroad before the death of her son, Charles Stewart Parnell. She was once asked why she did not ask him to aid her. She replied, "He is at the end of his means."

NEW YORK, April 19th. A special to the World from Rome, N. Y. says : " Doc " Minchon is on trial here charged with aiding the escape, in April, 1892, of Tom O'Brien, the bunke man, now held in Paris, France, for killing Reed Waddell, the gold, brick swindler.

O'Brien had been extradited from England and convicted of bunko work in which he beat k. an Albany County man out of $10,000. He was sentenced to ten years. Before he had been in prison long he was taken before Judge Coxe in Utics on a writ of habeas curbus and got away. James Buck, a keeper who was in charge of O'Brien, was recently sent to State prison for permitting him to escape. Minchon was with O'Bilen in Utica,

It was afterward reported that Minchon and O'Brien were together in Buenos Ayres. short time ago Minchon was arrested to Chicago and brought here. It was shown that Minchon applied for the writ of Kabeas corpus for O'Brien and deposited the 2100 with the Warden of Dannemore prison required to defray the

The funeral services of the late James W. Scott, proprietor of the Chicago Times-Herald. were held at St. James Episcopal Church at II o'clock yesterday. The funeral was one of the largest ever held in Chicage. Vice-President Stevenson was present, excerted by the ludges of the city, all the courts having adjourned .-- All the principal clubs sent representatives and floral offerings were profuse. The full Episcopal funeral service was rendered by Rector E. M. Stiles, and an address was delivered by Rev. Dr. Frank Gunsanius, president of the Armour Institute. The burial, at Graceland Cemetery, was private. The American Newspaper Publishers' Association, of which Mr. Scott was president for six years, was represented by its president, Charles .W. Knapp of the St. Louis Republic; one of the members of the executive committee, Colonel Driscoil of the St. Paul Ploneer Press, and its secretary, W. C. Bryant of the Brooklyn Times. Other members of the committee who had hoped to attend the funeral ceremonies were prevented at the last moment, in some cases by sickness and in the others by unavoidable business engagements which could not be put aside.
